

SAFE PERSON + SAFE PLACE

I stand for safe + respectful relationships.
I won't blame victims.
If you confide in me, I will listen.
I can help.

If you or someone you know needs help, there are 24-hour hotlines staffed by trained advocates who can provide support for teens:

New Castle County: (302) 762-6110

Kent/Sussex Counties: (302) 422-8058 or (302) 745-9874 (en español)

Safe, Healthy & Respectful Relationships.

How can you help victims of relationship violence?

- Display this card in your office or other space if you are comfortable providing contacts to local domestic violence services, letting people know that trained domestic violence advocates can help them think through all of their options.
- Commit to understanding the dynamics of healthy, unhealthy or abusive relationships and seeking safety and support for all teens.
- Speak out when coworkers, friends, or peers use language that promotes violence, racism or sexism.
- Get involved or support organizations working to prevent, address, and end domestic violence.
- Provide assistance to anyone being abused, without judgment or expectations, empowering them to make the best decisions for themselves and their families.
- Advocate for school and community environments free from all forms of violence and have policies in place that encourage victims/survivors to access supportive services.
- Serve as a role model for members of your community by believing and supporting victims/survivors.
